Gaming startups ready to scale-up

This DDW will bring 15 European scaleups for a mini acceleration week in Helsinki. The purpose of this program is to introduce companies to the local ecosystem and facilitate their market entry in Finland.

- Finland is one of the fastest-growing startup regions in Europe and has been attracting companies from all over the world. The capital, Helsinki, ranks #1 in the world regarding connectedness among founders, investors, and experts.
- Finland has also been acknowledged as the most innovative and highly educated country in the world, offering great tech talent for its businesses.
- Finally, the local government is closely involved with the ecosystem and provides many incentives to support their companies.

The combination of these factors puts the entrepreneurs in the perfect position to test and grow their ideas internationally. Because of these reasons, the region houses over 500 tech companies, including huge players such as Supercell and Rovio.
